

J. M. BASSETT, - Editor and Manager.

THE DAILY and WEEKLY HERALD has more than double the circulation of any other paper published in Southern California. Business men recognize it accordingly as the best advertising medium South of San Francisco.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 8, 1875.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

The San Francisco Board of Supervisors have passed a series of resolutions embodying their high respect for the late William C. Ralston.

The Indian troubles in Nevada are becoming serious, and troops are on their way to the scene of the conflict.

It is now believed the Democratic majority in the State will reach 30,000.

There is no reliable or responsible contradiction of the rumor that Col. Jackson has become controller and probably owner of the Los Angeles and Independence railroad.

Clouds of insects resembling the Kansas grasshopper yesterday filled the air in several localities in Illinois.

Reports from San Francisco concerning the financial condition are still encouraging.

The San Francisco Stock Boards yesterday transacted a small amount of business.

The Bank of Nevada (Flood & O'Brien's) will soon open for business.

The Union says San Diego stands by her friends—Houghton's majority 927. Los Angeles stands by her friends—Wigginton's majority 1383.

The Bulletin claims that it has been largely instrumental in securing all the Independent victories ever won in San Francisco. We believe there is some ground for this claim. The Bulletin is something like the Express of this city—it only helps a party to victory by opposing it.

The Call says the Democracy of California now have a splendid opportunity. That is true and one of the beauties of the situation is that the Democracy is in no way indebted to the Call for the opportunity and it will be no fault of that paper if the Democracy does not let that splendid opportunity slip by unimproved.

DESPITE our thirty-eight agricultural colleges, their three hundred teachers and their three thousand nine hundred and seventeen pupils, cabbage-heads still retain their old size and shape, turnips are turnips still and there is nothing new in the carrotline. Worse still, the price of vegetables is firm with no indication of an early decline.

D. O. MILLS seems to be operating with the Bulletin and Call in the work of blasting the fame of Wm. C. RALSTON. He authorizes a statement and those papers publish it. MILLS did not own a dollar's worth of stock in the bank of California, yet he was the committee of one appointed by the Board to demand Mr. RALSTON's resignation. He did his work well and RALSTON is dead. MILLS did not kill RALSTON but he struck the blow that killed him.

A prominent citizen of San Diego writes to a gentleman in this city that the articles in the HERALD showing the apostasy of McCoy and LEACH to Mr. WIGGINTON were the chief cause of the defeat of those two trimmers. We are glad to know this. We had rather be the means of defeating a man who goes into a convention and then seeks to defeat his own nominee, than to be elected to a lucrative office. If the HERALD put a quietus on McCoy and LEACH in addition to winning a splendid victory at home, the HERALD is proud of its achievements and rejoices in its power.

O. P. Fitzgerald.

The Star of last Sunday morning contains a paragraph in which reflections are made upon the Democratic nominee for Superintendent of public Instructions—Rev. O. P. FITZGERALD—which we consider unwarranted and unjust. In his official capacity nothing can be urged against him. His record as State Superintendent is without blemish and no man since the organization of the State has done more to systematize and place on a substantial basis our public schools than O. P. FITZGERALD. He and the teachers worked in accord and to-day he is with our educators the most popular Superintendent the State has ever had. We are aware that with a large class of people there is no good in ministers. We are not one of these. Ministers are the most potent of humanizers; their influence is all powerful and we believe they as a whole, use it for the good of those with whom they live and labor. We object to no man because he is a preacher of the gospel. Mr. FITZGERALD is a minister but he does not carry his sectarian opinions into the schools. It has been charged by the Express of this city that he is an enthusiastic politician. Mr. FITZGERALD is a Democrat; has always been a Democrat and we doubt not will die a Democrat, but he leaves his politics with his peculiar religious tenets when he visits the public schools. He is an eloquent speaker and a gentleman of intellect and education. For years we have been personally acquainted with Mr. FITZGERALD and we can cheerfully testify as to his genial wholesome social qualities. No man is better or more extensively known in this State than he and not one of his scores of friends but will willingly testify to his ability, high moral character and remarkable fitness for the position which he so honorably and satisfactorily filled and to which he will be again triumphantly elected.

Important to Grape Brandy Distillers.

D. D. PRATT, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, has recently made a ruling which will be read with interest by the grape brandy manufacturers of the Pacific coast. It is due to Mr. FOUK Federal Supervisor on this coast, to say that he has been indefatigable in his efforts to relieve our grape brandy distillers from the heavy and unjust tax heretofore imposed on their products and we may add that it is mainly due to his exertions that the decision has been obtained. Under the ruling of Commissioner PRATT, a vast amount of material heretofore thrown away will be utilized and a large increase in the brandy product will consequently follow. Here is the decision of the Commissioner:

THE FACTS HAVING BEEN demonstrated that the addition of a small quantity of burnt sugar, and always has been, a part of the original process of the manufacture of distilled spirits known to the trade as grape brandy, not only in this country, but in all countries where such brandy is produced, distillers of brandy from grapes are hereby exempted from so much of the provisions of Section 324 of the revised statutes as would render such distillers liable as distillers in consequence of the addition of such burnt sugar to their product while on the distillery premises and in the original packages. In order that the interests of the revenue may be fully protected under this exemption, the following regulation is promulgated:

Distillers of brandy from grapes wishing to add such burnt sugar to their product, must do so before the brandy leaves the distillery premises, in the presence of the United States Gauger, after such brandy has been gauged, and before the tax-paid stamp has been affixed.

Rectifiers stamps will not hereafter be required upon such brandies so treated, but it may be placed upon the market under the original tax-paid stamps. It is believed that not more than from four to six ounces of burnt sugar are necessary to each forty proof gallons of Grape Spirit.

A Practical Lesson.

Under this heading we might philosophize on every social ill and political error, but in the face of present financial difficulties a word to the unwise on this subject will be more appropriate.

The unfortunate cause which led to the untimely death of Mr. RALSTON is fresh in every mind, and few can mention his name without associating it with everything progressive. His mind was as buoyant as the air he breathed and his aspirations equally as unlimited. The development of the State was his great aim in life, and through him and his noble enterprising spirit many men became wealthy, even beyond their most sanguine expectations. Plentiful harvests and mines yielding inexhaustible supplies of treasure, induced thousands to transfer their capital from all parts of the world to the Pacific Slope. Land rose in value with startling rapidity and new cities were almost of daily growth. Gold was more plentiful in California than silver in many parts of Europe. Banks were full to overflowing, many people, not knowing what to do with their suddenly acquired wealth. Under these circumstances it is not to be wondered at that bank managers were besieged with armies of men, each having some good thing which only required a few thousand dollars to develop and the result would be astounding. Perhaps no class of people in the world are more inventive than the Americans, and as the way to success is open to all, each fertile brain is constantly spinning some bold and brilliant project to amass wealth suddenly.

Bankers breathing the same atmosphere and being closely connected with the life throbs of the people, find it difficult to withstand the temptations surrounding them; with glittering piles of money at their command, which of course they can replace with tenfold interest, and who will be the wiser? Such no doubt was Mr. RALSTON's position, he never intended wrong, his sacrifice of life and property attest the purity of his motives, and were it only for the good he has done, and the good he would have continued to do, it were better one bank should break than his life and services should have been lost to the State, for who can and will replace him? It will yet be ascertained that the unscrupulous conduct of those he had raised from obscurity to opulence brought about his ruin to favor their own designs. Be that as it may, the wealthy men of San Francisco have been taught the folly of depositing large sums of money in the hands of speculative bankers who have so many inducements for using it. Southern California offers a good field for investment; its virgin soil only requires capital to make it the most productive in the world. Its mountains are teeming with mineral wealth and its valleys are the loveliest on the face of the globe. Here under the orange and the pomegranate, surrounded with a broad expanse of waving corn, can the individual enjoy that healthful repose and comfort which is denied him elsewhere. Here the wealthy can rest from their labors undisturbed by the perpetual din of business calculations, a semi-tropical sun forever diffusing its bright and genial rays on nature's gorgeous wealth. Hundreds of new industries await the action of capital, and only require starting to be profitable.

Our population is increasing daily, onward they come from all parts of the Union to build up a mighty power in the West, which with the inexhaustible resources at its command, will become a new source of strength to the Great Republic, and an arbiter in its destiny. Let not your wealth lie as a bait for enthusiasts; invest it in land which offers the best security. Let it be distributed in the building of new cities and roads, unearth the treasures which lie hidden in the mountains. Start industries for the employment of the people who flock to your shores. Let your ships compete for and carry off the commercial prize from all parts of the globe.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—The San Francisco and Pacific Stock Exchange met to-day for the transaction of private business. It is understood that neither Board will offer general business until the Bank of California re-opens, which will probably be about the 15th inst. The Little Board met for business. The transactions were small, at rates a little off from yesterday, generally speaking. In the Pacific Exchange resolutions were passed, that as the Board could not, under its by-laws, subscribe to the guarantee fund of the Bank of California, the members should be recommended to subscribe in their individual capacity.

The work on the Bank of Nevada building is making rapid progress and in ten days from date that institution will be opened for business, affording once more a central point for brokers' checks and accounts.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—Last Saturday Mr. Sherman, U. S. Sub-Treasurer in this city, received instructions from Washington to-day: To receive gold coin in redemption of notes of the National Gold Bank and Trust Company. Yesterday Mr. Sherman commenced rendering, according to instructions, and at two P. M. $75,000 in coin had been paid out, and an equal sum in gold had been received. The treasurer is considered very light. The indications are that a sum much less than $200,000 will be sufficient to satisfy all applicants for redemption. If more, however, is required, $200,000 additional will be placed at the disposal of the Treasury. The bank has also redeemed all of its circulation presented to date, and will continue to pay on demand.

No definite intelligence concerning the outbreak of Indians in Nevada has been received at military headquarters to-day, and the work of dispatch troops to the front have been issued since yesterday. Detachments of soldiers from Camp Douglas, Utah, are now en route to the scene of the trouble, and advices of an official nature will be due to-morrow. The impression prevails that the outbreak is not interference has excited the outbreak; yet there is no official confirmation of this suspicion. The Indians in that region of Nevada have for years been distinguished for peaceful behavior and friendly attitude toward the whites, and the work of dispatch troops to the front have been issued since yesterday. An insurance with an annual premium not exceeding $500 is exempt from taxation, by a special Act of the Legislature of California (1885).
An equitable "Cash Surrender Value" is guaranteed in its contract and by the laws of California, and for this reason its Policies can be used as collateral security for their cash surrender value, the same as any bond for a like amount, and can be converted into the cash value, as provided for in the Trust Fund Deposit Plan.
Certificates of Trust Fund Deposits will, by special arrangements, be issued by the following Banks:
Western Savings and Trust Co., Of San Francisco, Cal.;
TEMPLE & WORKMAN, BANKERS, Los Angeles;
THE SANTA ROSA BANK, Santa Rosa and Ukiah;
ODD FELLOWS' SAVINGS AND COMMERCIAL BANK, of Sacramento;
THE BANK OF LAKE, Lakeport, California;
THE BANK OF HEALDSBURG, Healdsburg;
THE BANK OF RIDEOUT & SMITH, Marysville;
